Mr Haywood Cozart

N. Carolina

Dear Cozart:

I guess you are surprised to see this old familiar stationery. On the other hand you should not be, because you know the baseball season is near and you know ballplayers are scarce.

I am writing to find out if you are interested in playing with The Eagles this year. Hooker is working here in a defence plant, and he gave me this address to write you to.

I am enclosing you a stamped addressed envelope so you will answer me right away. Our league is meeting in Washington the last of this month, and I hope to have the team lined up by that time. In view of this fact, I would appreciate it very much if you answer me right away.

I hope you are enjoying good health. Mr Manley and all the boys send regards.

Very Truly Yours

PS. These men are here now, Pearson, Day, Hooker, Hoobgood, Stone. I think Irvin goes to camp this week. Manning, Isreal and Parks are in the army.
